Apologies for X-posting.

Dear all,

Please find underneath the last POLLEN newsfeed, with news from the various POLLEN nodes.

Enjoy!

Blog posts

Tania Murray Li: There is no one trajectory of development, by Irina Velicu https://entitleblog.org/2017/05/02/there-is-no-one-trajectory-of-development-tania-murray-li/

On 'the Political' in Environmental History, by Stefania Barca
https://entitleblog.org/2017/05/04/on-the-political-in-environmental-history/

Do Bees Produce Value? A conversation between an ecological economist and a Marxist geographer, by Erik Swyngedouw and Giorgos Kallis https://entitleblog.org/2017/05/09/do-bees-produce-value-a-conversation-between-an-ecological-economist-and-a-marxist-geographer/

Open Letter: Living in Lisbon, by ENTITLE_Collective https://entitleblog.org/2017/05/11/open-letter-living-in-lisbon/

Athens 9-11 June, UniverSSE 2017: no one left behind! By ENTITLE_Collective https://entitleblog.org/2017/05/16/athens-9-11-june-universse-2017-no-one-left-behind/

Negotiating longing and despair as frontier citizens of the Indian State, by Mabel Gergan https://entitleblog.org/2017/05/18/negotiating-longing-and-despair-as-frontier-citizens-of-the-indian-state/

Revolutionary Solidarity: Rojava and the International Struggle, by ENTITLE_Collective https://entitleblog.org/2017/05/23/revolutionary-solidarity-rojava-and-the-international-struggle/

Events

Summer University Trier
The program of the open series lectures that will take place at Trier University (Germany) during the 2017 Summer University entitled "Decolonizing Urbanism: Transformative Perspectives" (6-9 June 2017) can be viewed now here: https://www.uni-trier.de/index.php?id=62009. The Summer University explores space, power and knowledge in the urban sphere. Speakers will discuss the persistence of (neo)colonial power relations and alternative visions of urban transformations.

Post graduate training day 'Research methods in global environmental justice'

Friday 23rd June, 2017, University of East Anglia (UEA). Organised by the Global Environmental Justice Research Group from UEA's School of International Development, this one-day workshop will consider the opportunities and methodological challenges of using a Global Environmental Justice (GEJ) perspective to conduct critical environment and sustainable development research. For more information see here http://bit.ly/2qzFWre. The workshop is free to PGR students at UEA, and the Universities of Essex, Kent, Sussex, Surrey, Royal Holloway, Reading, Goldsmiths, Roehampton, & City University. Fees are otherwise £30 per day for PGR students and £60 per day for all other attendees. To book please email SSF.AdvancedTraining@uea.ac.uk.

3rd Annual FLARE meeting

he FLARE network (Forests and Livelihoods: Assessment, Research, and Engagement) is now accepting abstracts for oral presentations, lightning talks, posters, and workshops for the 3rd Annual FLARE meeting. The meeting will be held in Stockholm, Sweden, September 29 - October 2. Abstracts are due June 10, 2017. We are also accepting abstracts for thematic reports around two of the FLARE meeting themes (Ethics of forest-livelihood policies, and Forests, livelihoods, and the SDGs). These reports are commissioned and co-sponsored by Rights and Resources Initiative. Abstracts are due June 17, 2017. More information can be found in the attached calls and on the FLARE network's meeting webpage: http://www.forestlivelihoods.org/flare-meeting-2017/

Publications

Armiero, M. and De Angelis, M. 2017. Anthropocene: Victims, Narrators, and Revolutionaries. http://saq.dukejournals.org/content/116/2/345.abstract

Benjaminsen, T.A. and Johnsen K.I. 2017. The art of governing and everyday resistance: "rationalization" of Sámi reindeer husbandry in Norway since the 1970s. Acta Borealia. A Nordic Journal of Circumpolar Societies. http://www.tandfonline.com/doi/full/10.1080/08003831.2017.1317981

Fraser, J.A., T. Cardoso, A. Steward and L. Parry. 2017. Amazonian peasant livelihood differentiation as mutuality-market dialectics. Journal of Peasant Studies. http://www.tandfonline.com/doi/full/10.1080/03066150.2017.1296833

Kallis, G. and Swyngedouw, E. 2017 Do Bees Produce Value? A Conversation Between an Ecological Economist and a Marxist Geographer. http://www.tandfonline.com/doi/full/10.1080/10455752.2017.1315830

Koot, S., Van Beek, W. and Diemer, J. 2016. The Khwe of Namibia: Foragers between game, tourism and politics. Anthropos 111 (2), 497-511. https://stasjakootblog.files.wordpress.com/2017/05/2016-koot-van-beek-and-diemer-the-khwe-of-namibia.pdf

García López, G, Velicu, I and D´Alisa, G 2017 Performing Counter-Hegemonic Common(s) Senses: Rearticulating Democracy, Community and Forests in Puerto Rico. http://www.tandfonline.com/doi/full/10.1080/10455752.2017.1321026

Vacancies

An exciting vacancy at Mount Holyoke
We are very excited to be recruiting for a one year faculty position in environment and public health to sit in the department of environmental studies at Mount Holyoke. Please circulate among your networks and feel free to direct any questions to Tim Farnham or myself (contact information below). https://jobs.mtholyoke.edu/index.cgi?&JA_m=JASDET&JA_s=535

There is always more news at the POLLEN website:
https://politicalecologynetwork.com/category/news/

Thank you!

Stasja Koot, Bram Büscher and Rob Fletcher
The POLLEN Secretariat
Wageningen University
The Netherlands
politicalecologynetwork@gmail.com
https://politicalecologynetwork.com/