Living with Floods in a Mobile Southeast Asia

A Political Ecology of Vulnerability, Migration and Environmental Change

Edited by Carl Middleton, Chulalongkorn University, Thailand, Rebecca Elmhirst, University of Brighton, UK and Supang Chantavanich, Chulalongkorn University, Thailand

Series: Routledge Studies in Development, Mobilities and Migration

This volume contributes to a better understanding of the relationship between migration, vulnerability and resilience associated with flooding across diverse environmental, social and policy contexts in Southeast Asia. It challenges simple analyses of flooding as a singular driver of migration, and instead considers the ways in which floods figure in migration-based livelihoods and amongst already mobile populations. The book sets out a conceptual framework based on a 'mobile political ecology,' organised around a series of tightly-argued empirical case studies from countries in the ASEAN region.
